Who Are Ivy Point Richmond Residents?

Ivy Point Richmond residents are vital, socially-engaged, active adults who have a choice on where they live. Not everyone wants to retire and move to Sun City. Many want to stay close to their existing home or jobs, or move closer to family. Whether our residents are retired, volunteering, work full-time or part-time, they all enjoy the benefits of Ivy Point Richmond living and are eager to meet you! Residents at Ivy Point Richmond enjoy the quiet and safety that an active adult community brings—so why not join us and become an Ivy Point Richmond resident today?

What is the Ivy Point Richmond Difference?

Ivy Point Richmond is an active adult living option which is rare, with only a few such options in the entire city. We have strived to build an active age-restricted community located close to where people currently live, work or in close proximity to family. Ivy Point Richmond provides residents true independence at a price that is affordable. At Ivy Point Richmond, we provide the services you want, without the cost of services you don't want or need. Ivy Point Richmond's active adult residents enjoy cooking and going out, so we do not provide or charge for food service. They still drive so specialized transportation is not needed. They are independent so do not need extra medical care. Other facilities that offer these added services start in the thousands per month and escalate from there. These accommodations should only be sought if assistance is truly needed.

At Ivy Point Richmond, only pay for what you need.
